

Professional Statement

I am passionate about lifelong learning, ethical technology usage, and security best practices. I analyze organizational systems, identify opportunities for security hardening, and collaboratively craft solutions that positively impact organizations and the people they serve.